SOUTHERN CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DECEMBER 31, 2010 AND 2009

With Independent Auditors' Report Thereon

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Southern Center for Human Rights

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of the Southern Center for Human Rights (the "Center") as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Center's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Center as of December 31, 2010 and 2009, and the change in its net assets and its cash flow for the years then ended in conformity with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

SOUTHERN CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DECEMBER 31, 2010

1. ORGANIZATION

Southern Center for Human Rights (the "Center") was incorporated in 1978 under the Tennessee General Corporation Act as a nonprofit organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Internal Revenue Service has classified the Center as a publicly supported charitable organization which allows donors to the Center to take the maximum charitable contribution deduction. The Center, located in Atlanta, Georgia, provides free legal representation to poor and disadvantaged people facing the death penalty or subject to unconstitutional conditions in prisons or jails throughout the Southeastern United States. The Center is also engaged in efforts to improve indigent defense systems and to bring about greater independence of the judiciary. In addition, the Center promotes the advancement of human and civil rights through the performance of informative research and the publication of various educational materials including manuals for lawyers engaged in capital defense and/or human rights litigation in the South.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of accounting

The financial statements of the Center have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

• Basis of presentation of financial statements

In accordance with ASC 958-210-45, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations, the financial statements are presented on the basis of unrestricted, temporarily restricted and permanently restricted net assets.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ materially from those estimates.

• Fair value of financial instruments

The financial instruments shown as assets and liabilities in the statements of financial position are traditional in nature. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents and all other financial instruments, including receivables and payables, approximate their fair value.

Cash and cash equivalents

For financial statement purposes, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased are reported as cash and cash equivalents.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Investments

Investments in equity and debt securities are reported at fair value with realized and unrealized gains and losses included in the statement of activities. Realized and unrealized gains or losses on marketable securities are determined by using specific identification.

Fixed assets

Fixed assets are stated on the basis of cost with the exception of donated items, which are stated at fair market value at the date of donation. Expenditures for renewals and improvements are charged to the property accounts. Expenditures such as maintenance and repairs, which do not improve or extend the life of the respective assets, are charged to operations. The cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts for equipment sold or retired. Acquisitions that have an estimated useful life greater than one year are capitalized and are depreciated on the straight-line basis. Estimated useful lives are as follows:

Asset Category	Useful Lives
Building and improvements	31.5 - 39.5 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	5 years
Automobiles	5 years
Software	3 years

Net assets

Southern Center for Human Rights' net assets and its revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, the net assets of the Center and changes therein are classified as unrestricted and temporarily restricted as follows:

Unrestricted net assets – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be met either by actions of the Center or the passage of time.

Contributions

The Center reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets and the restriction has not expired in the same period the contribution was received. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Contributed services

The Center receives contributed services from various individuals, including its executive director, that have not been recorded in the financial statements. In addition, entry level staff attorneys provide their services at approximately $40,000 per year, which is substantially less than the market value of such services. Generally, top law school graduates can receive starting salaries in excess of $140,000 and typically earn significantly more after a few years of experience.

• Functional allocation of expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. For purposes of complying with restricted grants, the Center allocates management and fundraising expenses to four major programs: Human rights of prisoners, capital punishment cases, judicial independence and indigent defense.

Income taxes

The Center is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "IRC") whereby only unrelated business income, as defined by Section 512(a)(1) of the IRC is subject to federal income tax. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made.

Total	$ 230,552	$374,667

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Center adopted the provisions of Accounting Standards Codification 820 ("ASC 820"), Fair Value Measurements, for financial assets and liabilities. Under ASC 820, fair value is based on the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In order to increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements, ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes observable and unobservable inputs used to measure fair value into three broad levels. These levels, in order of highest priority to lowest priority, are described as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Unobservable prices that are based on inputs not quoted on active markets, but corroborated by market data.

Level 3: Inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the underlying asset.

The following table summarized the Center's financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis in accordance with ASC 820 as of December 31, 2010:

	Total	Level 1	Level 2		Level 3

5. OPERATING LEASES

The Center entered into an operating lease for a copier in March 2009. The lease has a monthly payment of $916 that is required through February 2014.

The Center entered into another operating lease for a copier in September 2009. The lease has a monthly payment of $267 that is required through September 2014.

The Center entered into an operating lease for additional office space on October 1, 2009. The lease has a base year monthly payment of $1,684 with annual increases. The lease expires on February 28, 2015.

Future minimum lease payments under the operating leases are as follows:

Year ended June 30,	Copier 1	Copier 2	Office 1
2011	$ 10,992	$ 3,204	$ 20,977

Total	$ 209,210	$ 53,643	$ 155,567

7. EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN

The Center adopted a defined contribution retirement plan effective April 1, 2001. Contributions are 4% of each participant's compensation as defined in the summary plan description. All employees are eligible to participate in the plan after one year of service and vest after five years. During the year ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, the Center contributed $41,818 and $27,602, respectively, to the plan.

8. CONCENTRATION OF RISK

The Center maintains its cash in accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Center has not experienced any losses in such accounts. Management believes it is not exposed to any undue credit risk with regards to the cash in excess of federally insured limits.

9. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events have been evaluated through March 21, 2011, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
